GREECE RUSHING WAR PREPARATIONS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Athens, Oct. 5.—War preparations in Greece are going forward night and day with feverish energy.

Merchant ships are being recalled, first line troops are being moved to the Bulgarian border, reserves are drilling everywhere and Red Cross units are being formed.

Newspapers predict that Prince Nicholas, oldest brother of King Constantine, will soon be nominated commander in chief at Salonika.

Refugees from Bulgaria have reported to the Greek military authorities at Salonika that the Bulgarian general staff has massed a heavy force of cavalry at Eskije, on the railway running from Salonika eastward into Thrace, and also along the Struma valley and around Strumnitza.

Although some of the newspapers have protested against the landing of an allied army on Greek soil, the belief prevails in many quarters that the allied governments entered secretly into an agreement with the Venizelos government before taking this step.

There is now gathered near the Bulgar frontier a mixed army composed of French, British and Greek soldiers. Not far away Servian forces are massed where the Greek, Serb and Bulgar frontiers meet.

Pro-war newspapers, which defend the policies of Premier Venizelos, predict that "another glorious era for Greek arms" is about to open. They declare that it is only a matter of time until Bulgaria is forced by the Teutonic allies to attack Servia and that Greece must intervene on the side of Servia in accordance with the agreement which was entered into at the time of the second Balkan war.

TOO MUCH TALK BY OFFICIALS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 5.—An intimation that certain administration officials "are talking too much" has been delicately conveyed to Secretary of State Lansing. Inspired "guesses" from administration sources may endanger the success of pending negotiations to end the submarine controversy with German. Count von Bernstorff has again urged, it was learned today, that entire secrecy shroud all negotiations until a complete understanding is reached. This is to prevent a misconception in German circles that might prevent the ratification of the expected agreement.

It is understood that the point at issue at present is just what form the future negotiations are to take. The ambassador has left with the secretary a memorandum in which he sets forth the manner that he considers satisfactory. Administration officials have characterized this as "not specific enough."

It is now expected that at the next conference between the ambassador and the secretary of state, to be held, if possible, tomorrow, the ambassador will be told just what the administration really wants.

In this connection diplomats in the confidence of the German ambassador reiterated today their knowledge that Count von Bernstorff has been clothed with full authority to settle the submarine controversy. They professed amazement at what they termed an apparent effort to misunderstand his position. But they all believe, it is learned that a complete understanding, so far as the basis of agreement is concerned, exists between the ambassador and Secretary Lansing, and that the problem is just how it is to be worked out.

It is believed here that the main issue in doubt is just how Germany can frame her assurances so that they will satisfy President Wilson and at the same time not be of a character that would make trouble for the German foreign office. This problem, it is understood, both parties to the conference believe can be satisfactorily adjusted.

Connecticut Town Elections.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 5.—Republicans made gains throughout the state yesterday in the little town elections. The cities of Norwalk and New London elected Republican mayors and city tickets, Ernest E. Rogers in New London and Carl A. Hartstrom in Norwalk. Joseph F. Dutton was elected mayor of Bristol under the new charter which eliminates party lines. The wets and drys fought a virtual draw, five towns switching each way of the 53 voting on the license question.

Bombarded by British Ships.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Amsterdam, Oct. 5.—British warships again bombarded the German positions at Westende and Middlekerke on the North Sea coast today. Allied aviators, co-operating with the ships, shelled the railway lines behind the German front in Belgium.

Hospital Destroyed by Fire.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Plymouth, England, Oct. 5.—Fire destroyed the Salisbury road military hospital here today, but all the patients were safely removed.

DRINK RESTRICTION GIVES GOOD RESULTS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Liverpool, Oct. 5.—Remarkable results of the order restricting the hours in which strong drink may be purchased are already noticeable among the workers here and even the opponents of absolute prohibition are forced to admit that good food, more cleanly amusements, better clothes, books and newspapers have taken the place in the workmen's lives where ale formerly reigned supreme.

While many have beaten the law with absolute ease, the vast majority have fallen into the new ways, and are very thankful that they have been saved from themselves, and the "soakers" who sponged upon them.

Those who keep up the old order of things have displayed a fervor for copper coins—they cannot have enough of them. Indeed, many of them are spending their spare time in turning their shillings, half crowns and in some extreme cases, their ten shilling notes into copper.

And it is equally amazing that the problem that a barman or barmaid had during the first five or six days of the new order of things, of finding change for half a dozen persons at the same time, has almost vanished.

When a company of workmen—or their employers—enters a public house to order a drink, it is simply wonderful to find that in every case each man has the exact amount of change in front of him.

The "soaker" notices one great alteration—that he no longer wakes in the morning with a big amount of copper in his pockets; the old time custom of always giving a large piece of money to be changed, irrespective of the fact that the man who was ordering drinks had the right amount of change in his pocket has gone.

Yet, though hundreds of men have exhausted every possible form of cheating the act, thousands of others have not only become reconciled, but actually in love with the new order of things. A typical instance was related to me by a friend, a well known timber merchant.

One day he noticed his men coming out of a cocoa room going straight back to the docks where they were working.

"Hullo, you chaps!" he said jocularly. "Aren't you having any beer now?"

The surprising answer was:

"No, sir. If we cannot get it in the morning it is of no use to us in the afternoon."

Now, those were the men who ordinarily drank about three or four pints of ale in the early morning, two or three before dinner, and about half a dozen in the afternoon and evening.

Roughly speaking, it is a saving of fourteen shillings, $3.50, per week to them. But it would be a mistake to imagine that this means fourteen shillings put in the savings bank. First of all, it means that they spend more money on the cost of their breakfast, then of their dinner, then of their tea, for much as the extreme teetotaller may declare otherside, beer has been meat and drink to many laborers, and, I am sorry to say, in some cases, board, and washing, and lodging, too.

Where is this money going that is no longer spent upon ale? Its first sign has been the elimination of the better class laborer from the common lodging house. These men are going into private lodgings where they can be better looked after than they were in the days when the brewer catered for their full pockets, and they, themselves, had to put up with semi-starvation, tempered by an occasional treat until the next pay day.

The tailoring trade shows signs of improvement, the the second-hand shops where men buy "hand-me downs" signs of a slump. So long as I can remember, the working class tailor has always been slack in winter, partly because the ordinary laborer either could not afford an overcoat, or else made a second-hand overcoat do the work of three or four winters. Once men get the habit of consulting the tailor, grocer, boot maker and furniture maker first, and the brewer last, it is obvious that we shall have a big change in what is known as the seasonal trade.

Most curious of all, is the very significant fact that the new teetotallers are beginning to buy newspapers, boks and pamphlets, especially those dealing with the war. A man with plenty of tobacco and a newspaper which will intelligently discuss the war, will fill a very pleasant evening.

Then again, the theaters have had better business, especially the picture houses, and the music halls. There have been few dockers this week who have gone to see Gaby Deslys, but on the other hand quite a crowd of them have gone to see the Irish players, and the new temperance movement may have no small effect on the drama.

The demand for necessaries is increasing; the demand for luxuries will follow. The historian who records all the extraordinary phenomena of this war may yet record that the most astounding phenomena was that enforced sobriety taught men to think, and for the first time in their history, to demand from life all things which are sential to happiness.

Fear to Hear the Cricket.

It is regarded as a death warning in some parts of Germany to hear a cricket sing.

MRS. WRIGHT BARCLAY © PHOTO BY WHITE

SPENT TWO MILLION DOLLAR INHERITANCE AND NOW OWES MORE THAN A MILLION.

Mrs. Wright Barclay.

New York, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Wright Barclay, society woman and a prominent exhibitor at the Horse Shows, who inherited $2,000,000 in New York realty from her first husband, Augustus Browning Prentice, now owes $1,080,248, and has but $39 in the bank, according to bankruptcy schedules filed by her counsel in the United States court.

She estimates the value of her realty at $424,000 on which there are many mortgages. She blames her financial troubles to mismanagement of her estate by some of her employes.

Her first husband, worrying about his properties, became insane and died in the Bloomingdale asylum in 1906. The estate had come to him from his father, a noted New York lawyer.

Mrs. Barclay has given up her costly residence, her automobiles, the retinue of servants and her horses, and has gone to live in an apartment.

Five weeks ago, Mrs. Barclay, who had failed to appear in supplementary proceedings was fined $250, by Supreme Court Justice Gay for contempt of court. She said she couldn't pay and was in danger of going to jail, when her husband, Wright Barclay, paid her fine.

CHARLTON MURDER TRIAL BEGINS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Como, Italy, Oct. 5.—Porter Charlton, the young American, who five years ago beat his beautiful and dashing wife with a mallet in their villa here, placed her body, perhaps still living, inside a trunk and threw it into Lake Como, was placed on trial here today, charged with unpremeditated murder, the maximum for which is twenty years imprsonment.

Defending Charlton are Ex-Judge Palmieri of New York city and several Italian attorneys of repute. There is no question about the facts of the slaying, for Charlton made a full confession when arrested on his return to America just after the crime.

It is thought the defense will confine itself to painting in most sinister colors the career of the dead woman and her alleged baneful influence on her husband.

While in jail here for two years the prisoner has perfected himself in the Italian tongue and he wishes to tell his story on the stand. Under Italian law he can go to almost any length in appealing to the court not being confined to sticking to the simple facts.

Charlton has been found sane by a commission headed by Professor Maggioti, a leading Italian alienist, but the defense may contend that the taunts of Mrs. Charlton drove her youthful husband to a rage which amounted to temporary insanity.

When seen today, Charlton did not show much effects of his five years in prison here and in America. Although his cell is small, he has insisted on taking regular exercises and has preserved a cheerful disposition. He has been a general favorite with his keepers. Indeed, there is a tendency on the part of the Italian people to lionize him which has been severely condemned by a section of the press.

Charlton's story, if he is permitted to tell it, will picture himself as an excessively modest and shy lad who grew up to early manhood wholly ignorant of love affairs and womankind until he fell under the influence of Mrs. Mary Scott Castle.

Mrs. Castle had had a very checkered career. Of an excellent family, as is her husband, she was a society belle in San Francisco when a girl. Then she married a rising young lawyer, Neville Castle, and through her extravagance drove him to poverty. She went on the stage with a great flourish of trumpets to retrieve their fortunes and there fell in with an actor, whom she followed to New York. Castle forsook his haunts in the states and sought a new life in Alaska. Here he became United States district attorney and procured a divorce on the ground of desertion.

Meanwhile Mrs. Castle and the actor put on a vaudeville sketch in New York. This did poorly and the actor left her. She became an artist's model and is said to have made a trip to Europe with one of the painters who employed her.

In the summer of 1909 she shot and slightly wounded William B Craig, a lawyer with whom she had been intimate, in the lobby of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York city. She was discharged in court on the request of Craig.

That winter she met and fascinated Charlton, then twenty years old or half her own age. A month after they were introduced they eloped to Wilmington, Del., and were secretly married. On their return to New York, where they lived in Mrs. Charlton's luxurious apartment, Charlton was advised by his physician to take a year's trip to southern Europe in the hope of warding off tuberculosis. They also wished to escaped notoriety, for stories concerning their elopement had been published.

At their retreat on Lake Como, Charlton has said, they dissipated a great deal. She plied him with liquor until he was a nervous wreck. She taunted him with his youth and immaturity and told him of the superiority of other men to whom she had given her love.

While Charlton's counsel will probably not spare Mrs. Charlton's memory, her brother, Captain Henry Harrison Scott, U. S. A., has engaged an attorney who is attending the trial for the purpose of breaking down any attempt to picture her as a "vampire."

On June 10, 1910, fishermen drawing their nets in Lake Como found a trunk which contained the body of a woman that was quickly identified as Mrs. Charlton. Her head had been beaten with what was thought at first to be brass knuckles. A Russian who had been friendly with the Charltons in the vicinity was arrested and for a time it was thought possible that Charlton himself had been murdered also.

This theory was destroyed on June 23, when detectives arrested Charlton as he strode down the gangplank of a steamship in Hoboken, N. J. He immediately made a complete confession and said that his wife had so maddened him with her sarcastic personal remarks that he had caught up a mallet which he had been using to straighten the leg of a couch and had beaten her insensible.

Believing her dead, he doubled up her body, locked it in the trunk, and by night carried the trunk to a pier from which he threw it into the lake.

Charlton spent three years in jail in New Jersey after his arrest. Two years ago he was surrendered to the Italian authorities on extradition proceedings and lodged in jail here. Since then four successive dates have been set for his trial but each time it was postponed. The war has delayed the trial more than a year.

Work on the Streets.

The street department under Superintendent W. Scott Van Keuren is busy repairing the streets of the city and both of the city steam rollers have been placed at work. Uptown a gang of men are busy repairing Henry street, which is being topdressed and rolled. The steam roller at that point is in charge of Edward Vogt, the assistant street superintendent, while downtown Engineer "Billy" Pratt has charge of the steam roller at work on Chambers and Murray streets. As soon as that job is completed the force in charge of Foreman James Martin will take up the work of placing Montrepose avenue in first class shape by topdressing and rolling the street. The street department is also busy laying two sanitary sewers, one on Van Gaasbeek street and the other on Abbey street.

A Democratic Rally.

In order to revive a little interest in the party the Democrats will hold a grand rally at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening, October 12, at which time several of the candidates on the ticket will make addresses in the hopes of securing some votes. Those who will speak are William C. DeWitt, candidate for county clerk; Isidor Sampson, candidate for member of assembly in the First district; Former Recorder William H. Grogan and Former Mayor Roscoe Irwin. The meeting will be presided over by Supervisor Quigley, who is a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket. It is hoped that every Democrat will try and be present. There will be music to keep the audience awake.

Swoboda to be Interned.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Paris, Oct. 5.—Raymond Swoboda, who was arrested in connection with an alleged attempt to burn the French liner Touraine at sea, was ordered interned today by Commandant Julien, of the military court, following the dropping of espionage charges that had been lodged against him. Although it is admitted that Swoboda was born in the United States, the military authorities declare it would be dangerous to allow him at large because of his pro-German sympathies.

Minneapolis Remains Wet.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 5.—With only eight precincts in the city of Minneapolis and Hennepin county to be heard from, the wets were conceded today to have won the option election yesterday by a majority of approximately 9,000. The city of Minneapolis will retain its 432 saloons. The incomplete totals gave the following vote: Wet—37,991; dry—28,894. Wholesale charges of fraud and violations of the corrupt practices act were made by dry leaders, and ten wet workers were arrested during the voting.

RUSSIA READY TO STRIKE BULGARIA

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Russian, Oct. 5.—Russia broke off diplomatic relations with Bulgaria today.

M. Sazonoff, the foreign minister announced that H. Savinski, the Russian minister to Sofia, has been recalled.

It is believed that hostilities will follow within twenty four hours.

Russia is fully prepared to strike.

The announcement of the recall of the Russian minister to Bulgaria came at the end of a long statement by the foreign minister explaining why the step had been taken.

After stating that the Russian minister to Bulgaria had been recalled Foreign Minister Sazonoff said: "The great victories of our allies in the west came as exactly foreseen in the systematic plans of the general staffs.

"We are sure these victories are only the prelude to yet greater achievements, but whatever happens our determination to continue the struggle, side by side, as allies, until ultimate triumph comes, is unshakeable."

M. Sazonoff after eulogizing the Bulgarian people as "brother Slavs," continues:

"However great may be its aberration, Russia will never deny her child (Bulgaria.) She will ever be ready with outstretched arms to her. Bulgaria was constituted to be the faithful and loyal daughter of Russia in case of need and one of the champions of the Slavic race. Everything should have impelled Bulgaria in that direction—her interests, traditions, history and spontaneous impulses of her heart, but strangers with the souls of adventurers installed themselves in her midst with the purpose of deceiving honest folk and converting them to six sordid conspirators. The Bulgarian people were thus urged forward to a monstrous attack against a brother nation—the Serbs, and by what inducement?

"The immediate occupation of Macedonia, although it has already been formally understood that Macedonia was to be given to Bulgaria. The triple entente powers were to occupy it simply to convince the Bulgarans that it was to be theirs.

"To this equitable proposition Bulgaria responds by a sudden mobilization and concentration of troops against Servia, confessing her deliberate intention of selling the Slav peoples to the Austro-German empires.

"Such acts are repugnant and in the end must rebound to the undoing of their authors. There is but little hope of bringing Bulgaria back to reason."

Democrats to Organize.

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Democratic county central committee, the First and Second assembly districts committees and the city committee will meet at the court house to organize under the provisions of the election law.

ANOTHER STEP FOR THE BRIDGE

There is every reason to believe that bids will be asked for the construction of the Sleightsburgh bridge before the end of the year. The detailed plans are nearly completed and the last bit of red tape is about to be unwound by the public service commission, which held a purely formal hearing on Monday, as owing to the fact that the bridge crossed a spur of the Ulster and Delaware Railroad the bridge is technically within the provisions of the so-called "grade crossing law," and the commission must prescribe the method of crossing.

An Albany dispatch says:

The attitude of the upstate public service commission at a hearing Monday indicates that the state will build a huge highway bridge as a connecting link in the west shore Albany-New York highway at Kingston, which will do away with the old chain ferry now utilized usually in carrying passengers across Rondout creek at Kingston. The bridge will cost $220,000 and will span Rondout creek and the Ulster and Delaware railroad between Kingston and Port Ewen. There was no opposition to the plans as presented to the utilities board by the state highway department's engineers Monday.

The bridge will extend from the high ground in Kingston to the high ground in Port Ewen, extending from Wurts street in Kingston, and it will be one of the important links in the New York-Albany automobile highway, another link of which is now under construction around Storm King mountain. At present automobilists have to use the chain ferry or detour back through Eddyville around the "bay" in Rondout creek. With the construction of this bridge the road will be shortened and a great improvement effected for the city of Kingston, it is contended. The state will pay the entire cost of the bridge out of the highway funds.

WORLD AWAITS THE FIRST BLOW

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 5.—Diplomacy having failed to break the growing intimacy between Bulgaria and the Teutonic allies, the world now awaits the first hostile blow, for Bulgaria intervention in the war is now regarded as inevitable.

Will the allies strike first or will Bugaria?

That was the big question that pervaded all quarters today. Both sides are equally prepared for a sudden onslaught. In addition to the Russian squadron off the Bulgarian coast in the Black Sea, an allied army is gathered on Greek soil, ready for a drive into south-western Bulgaria.

It was reported without confirmation that Russia has already recalled her envoy from Sofia.

Up to the time this dispatch was written no word had come from Petrograd relative to Bulgaria's reply to Russia's ultimatum, and the conclusion is that Bulgaria decided to ignore it.

A dispatch from Milan states that a military convention has been signed by Bulgaria and Germany, by which Bulgaria is bound to attack Servia with six divisions and to send Macedonian troops into the Vardar valley to destroy railway communications between Salonika and Nish, thus delaying the allies and Greeks in their efforts to aid the Serbs.

No apprehension is felt here over the future actions of Greece. Satisfactory assurances have been given that Greece will abide by her treaty to help Servia.

As regards Roumania, however, doubt is expressed. A dispatch to the Times from Bucharest says:

"Premier Bratiano of Roumania received a deputation from the opposition party, who asked for an immediate mobilization in order to prevent Roumania from being surrounded by enemies.

"M. Bratiano replied that mobilization was unnecessary as nothing has happened since the crown council last year to make Roumania change her present attitude of neutrality."

This indicates that Roumania will make strenuous efforts to remain neutral, even if Bulgaria does go to war.

It is reported from Sofia that opposition to war is dying out and that big patriotic demonstrations have taken place there, students carrying German and Austrian flags through the street. A hostile demonstration was made before the Russian legation.

The Daily Mail, in commenting upon the Balkan situation, says that developments there are such that England will soon need another large army. This will be used as an argument for the pro-conscriptionists in parliament.

Earthquake in Michigan.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 5.—Official reports state that the damage done by last night's earthquake shock was small. Windows in several parts of Houghton were broken and in some houses chinaware was shaken from shelves. The earthquake was felt throughout the upper peninsula of Michigan.

DUMBA SAILS FOR ROTTERDAM

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Oct. 5.—Expressing deep regret at leaving the United States, Dr. Constantin Dumba, the recalled Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States, sailed for Rotterdam today on the Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam.

Assurance of safe conduct had been given Dr. Dumba by the United States, and the allies.

"I wish I did not have to leave at this time," said Dr. Dumba. "I would like to see more of your country. I have enjoyed myself immensely since I first came here. You have a beautiful country.

"The people are very nice and everyone has treated me well. I have no malice toward any one. I have even no ill-will for the newspapers."

Dr. Dumba's recall resulted from the seizure of papers and letters when James Archibald, the American war correspondent, was arrested in England. These documents showned that Dr. Dumba was exerting himself to cripple American industries which were turning out war supplies for the allies.

WHY SEWERAGE FLOODS BROADWAY

The backing up of the sewer on Broadway in front of the city hall and the flooding of the brick pavement with water and sewerage the past few days has caused Street Superintendent W. Scott Van Keuren to place a force of men at work excavating to find the cause of the trouble and the startling discovery has been made that five feet of sewer pipe is missing and that both open ends of the sewer were not plugged. In fact, according to the street superintendent there was no sign of any pipe having been laid when this sewer was constructed.

To thoroughly understand the situation it should be remembered that the grade in front of the city hall is such that there is a summit in the street at that point. The descent on the down town side is such that the sewerage flows toward the Rondout creek, while on the uptown side of the descent the sewerage flows toward O'Reilly street.

The building of the new high school and connecting the toilets in the building with the Broadway sewer is the cause of bringing to light the fact that five feet of the eight inch sewer is missing. The increased sewerage caused by the high school connection caused the sewer to block up and as a result the sewerage began to flow through the open end of the sewer and seep into the ground and then as the sewerage increased in volume it began to overflow through the manhole in the brick pavement and flood the street.

The street force when they found that five feet of pipe were missing began to probe for the pipe, thinking that it might have become broken and fell into the excavation but not a sign of a piece of pipe could be found broken off. This fact has led the street superintendent to believe that when the sewer was constructd this five feet of pipe was not laid. Both ends of the sewer might have been plugged at the time that the pipe was laid but if it was the plugs had dropped out.

The fact that the sewer at that point did not carry a considerable amount of sewerage until the high school was connected up is the reason why the contents of the sewer seeping into the ground under the brick pavement has caused no odor to arise.

The street department today had practically completed the repairs necessary and had laid the additional five feet of eight inch pipe needed to complete the sewer.

Telephone Poles Must Go.

Judge Hasbrouck has decided the application of the New York Central Railroad Company for a peremptory writ of mandamus to compel the removal of the wires and poles of the State Telephone Company from the West Shore property at Coxsackie, and has granted judgment asked for by the railroad. The State Telephone Company operates under franchises granted to other companies which it acquired and by franchises granted to it. Near the Coxsackie station the poles are on either side of the West Shore tracks and the wires extend over the tracks. The railroad company contested the legality of some of the franchises and in order to protect its rights proceedings were begun to compel their removal. The case was argued some time ago. Amos Van Etten appeared for the New York Central and the applicant; Curtis & Warren of Coxsackie appeared for the telephone company and opposed.

Being Polite.

Little Ellen, who was looking at the baby of a friend of her mother's, wished to say something very complimentary, so she asked in polite tones:

"How old is your baby?"

"Eight weeks," replied the young mother proudly.

"Is that so?" responded Ellen: "she does not show her age."—Woman's Home Companion.

Westminster Abbey.

The full legal title of Westminster abbey is "the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster." Very few people have heard the famous burial place so designated. A collegiate church, as distinguished from a parish church, is one that is administered by a "college" of priests instead of an individual rector or vicar.—Westminster Gazette.

Not Needed.

The young bride had clearly formed ideas on industrial questions.

"I will give you something to eat," she informed the tramp, "if you will get that ax"—

"Oh, I shan't need that," the tramp interrupted in a reassuring tone. "My teeth are all right."—London Stray Stories.

It is expected there will be service at the Friends' Meeting House at Greenfield on Sunday, October 10, in the afternoon. This yearly gathering of Friends at this historical place is looked forward to by people from far and near, for many miles distant, and the annual meeting is made possible through the kindness of Mrs. J. F. Norbury of Ellenville, whose parents were among the early settlers of this little hamlet and were among the first to worship in this same meeting house, so well preserved yet to this day in its very same style of architecture as when first erected, yet in a perfect state of preservation.

P. Hobson, D. D., of St. John's Episcopal Church followed Dr. Moser and delivered a very able discourse in keeping with the subject as announced. There was a large congregation present and the entire discourse was listened to with marked attention and was well received by everyone in attendance. The series will be continued on Sunday evening next.

The village butcher shops close evenings at 6:30 o'clock except Thursday and Saturday evenings.

A Spooky Affair.

The young people of the Westminster Guild and the Ushers' Club of the Rondout Presbyterian Church will give a very novel entertainment at the chapel of the church, next Tuesday evening, October 12. It will be in the nature of a Hallowe'en affair, and will be a thoroughly ghostly performance. Those who attend will be welcomed by a ghost of dignified and awesome mien. The decorations will be appropriate to the event, and a witch, dwelling in a dark and fearsome cavern will tell fortunes. There will be a mock orchestra, shadow pictures and a magic entertainment given by Magician Van Deusen. Any number of thrills will be offered those who visit the Chambers of Horrors, and if the sights there do not make the beholder dream of his or her "ancestors drawn up in battle array," the refreshments surely will. They will consist of hot dogs, ice cream, pumpkin pie, and such apples as have not been secured by the dodgers in the games. A small admission fee will be charged and also a very small additional sum for the refreshments. The various committees of these two organizations are requested to meet this Thursday evening, after prayer meeting, in the chapel, to perfect all details for the entertainment.

Development of Human Jaw.

The bony structure of prehistoric human jaws was of astonishing massiveness and strength. They were buttressed, as if to withstand terrific violence. But when chins began to be worn, nature was obliged to furnish pads for them—to which circumstance Doctor Robinson attributes the origin of the fleshy covering that adorns this part of the face today, beautifying its contour.

KINGSTON, N. Y., OCT. 5, 1915.

The voters passed judgment upon the official record of Governor Glynn a year ago and put an "Ex." in front of his title, thus relegating the subject to the realm of dead issues, but Mr. Glynn still continues to debate it. He has just reiterated his exploded claim that there was no necessity for a direct tax this year, although it is a matter of common knowledge that in order to fake a record for economy he left the State treasury so nearly empty that it became necessary to borrow six million dollars last summer to keep the State from defaulting on its obligations. This one big outstanding fact makes it a waste of time to try to befog the minds of the voters with technicalities. The deficit would have been still larger but for the fact that the Whitman administration has abolished a number of useless offices and has cut out various extravagant practices. This is in sharp contrast to the era of Dix, Sulzer and Glynn, during which twelve new boards and bureaus and forty-nine special commissioners were added to the State Government. The people are well aware that they made no mistake in turning the rascals out, and even if Mr. Glynn continues talking until he is black in the face he will not succeed in persuading the voters to undo their work.

Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver is evidently lacking to some extent in that judicial poise which ought to distinguish occupants of the bench, for he has openly declared that he will take a shotgun and kill men who have libelled him if the law can give him no protection. The law cannot protect anybody from slanderers. If their victim sues them he gets either nothing or a verdict so small as to be an insult to his character, since juries seem to think that a good man cannot be injured much by liars. No doubt there is much justice in this opinion. Runs on banks have frequently been started by liars, and the credit of business men has been ruined in the same way at critical times, but it is only when a lie produces such quick action that much harm is done. The community gradually labels the liars malicious and otherwise, who circulate injurious stories, and it is not long until all their statements are disbelieved, even when they tell the truth. Then, of course, all their power for harm is gone. The wise man resorts neither to the law nor to weapons when his reputation is assailed, being secure in the knowledge that he cannot be disgraced except by his own act.

The Democratic tariff law has very few friends left. The New York Times which has praised it so much, now declares that its most conspicuous feature, the one putting sugar on the free list, must be repealed. The Providence Journal, another persistent foe of protection, now says: "It looks as if we were destined to see in this country one of the most powerful movements in our history in favor of a 'constructive' Republican tariff act." These are specimen utterances of a host of editors and public men who have just 'seen the light.' With the United States treasury rapidly approaching bankruptcy in spite of burdensome income and special taxes, and with the certainty of our markets being flooded with cheap goods immediately after the ending of the war, it is obvious to all but the most bigoted that a restoration of protection is imperatively necessary. Out of the [illegible] which characterizes him, President Wilson will doubtless try to prevent the change, but we do not think that his personal comfort will be preferred by Congress to the continued existence of American industries.

While some of our citizens who sympathize with Germany have been violent in their denunciation of the big loan which is being made here to the Allies, nobody exhibits the least ill temper over the fact that bonds of the third five per cent German war loan are being offered simultaneously in our markets. This is an interesting phenomenon in view of the fact that any money loaned to Germany will be taken out of this country, while that raised by the Allies will remain here. Just how pro-German fanatics are able to explain this to themselves we know not. As for the great mass of our citizens, they look upon bonds of foreign Governments just as they do upon any investment security. The interest of five per cent or over is rather attractive, since it is somewhat more than can usually be obtained on securities of absolute soundness. The chance that any European Government will default interest or repudiate its bonds is so remote that it is hardly worth considering. In such an event no investment could be considered entirely safe. It is not impossible that repudiation will be resorted to some day but it will not come during the lifetime of those who fought in the war. Only when they are dead and their deeds are forgotten will such an issue be raised, and probably then unsuccessfully.

SYMPATHY WHEN?

(By Our Woman Editor.)

The morbid curiosity that comes to light in the trial of folk who have transgressed the laws is not a pleasant comment upon human nature. Fortunately, it does not reach to many women; and yet, upon occasion, they flock to court in sufficient numbers that a bar is put upon their entrance.

It is not sympathy that draws, since the presence of a stranger, eager to catch the last bit of incriminating testimony cannot be inspiring to one at the bar. And of all things that must hurt, it would seem that nothing could be much more depressing and disheartening than the knowledge that the spectators included a host of women just morbidly curious, else openly antagonistic.

One never knows the workings of another's mind, and when it happens that it is a woman who is under trial, it may be that the presence of those of her own sex may be construed by the solitary figure at the bar as an indication of some measure of sympathy; but tradition does not credit the average woman with extending an overflow of leniency when one of her own sex falls from grace in any conspicuous way. Thankfully, however, one notes that many are learning to rise beautifully above the average.

Woman has always given royally and unstintedly of her sympathy and has known how to "temper justice with mercy" to all the world until the time has come when one of her own sex has stood alone, with critical eyes fixed upon her, and then—she could not understand.

It is true enough; we cannot understand. But human beings are not made after one great, true pattern; and it very often happens that a woman drops away from the standards set for her, and, having none of her own, comes to a parting of the ways, and voluntarily lapses, just as does a man who loses his bearings.

In the majority of ways, women are no better than are their brothers, and when they offend they need a degree of sympathy and of leniency in proportion to that meted out in other directions. The "no sympathy" sentiment still expressed by much of femininity leads to the conclusion that women need to learn something from men in this regard. When trouble comes, even though they have no excuse to offer for wrong-doing, they hearten and help one another, and while they condemn, they do not destroy.

But, from time immemorial, women have elevated patrician eyebrows and passed on the other side, that is, the great bulk. There is always a scattering few to pause to give heart, lend sympathy and try to look at life from another nook than their own, and when they give they give royally.

It has not been altogether woman's fault, indeed, not at all. For during the long ages that are gone there has been a taint of bias and a tang of narrowness in the very air she has breathed. But now she is viewing an ever widening horizon, and it will be a right glorious day for the world when all women live up to their possibilities, grow tolerant and understanding because nature made them so, not narrow and unsympathetic because tradition and custom have forced it.

Apropos the bar that sometimes keeps women away from [illegible] trials, while it is lifted to permit masculinity to pass, it is so wholesome a restriction that there is no room for resentment or anything but applause. If some of the world must be forced away from dangerous places that lure when they should repel, it seems well to bring force to bear; and if it does not reach all alike, surely the greatest hardship does not rest upon the excluded.

Sometime perhaps a balance may be struck that shall be satisfying to all. Meanwhile it seems distinctly in keeping with new protestations that women are making to give just the ordinary degree of human sympathy to a woman that would be given a man in like circumstances.

As for admiration, respect and excuses, they have no bearing and cannot be summoned without being earned, but it has a look of broadness when sympathy and leniency are not influenced by the query: "Who is the offender?"

Yes, that's just what we said. Let the Kingstonian make your house a HOME.

Certainly no place is homelike where everyone is grouchy and chilly every time the mercury goes below normal; and the boiler, no matter how you force it, seems to be fast asleep.

It makes mother and the youngsters uncomfortable; endangers baby's health and causes dad to pass remarks under his breath.

A Kingstonian Boiler hooked up to your heating system will give you the right heat all the time. There isn't a bit of doubt about that. The heat will be evenly distributed and kept at that cozy temperature that gives to every nook and corner that snug comfy feeling which makes home feel like the good place it is.

Y.M.C.A. MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN BEGINS

The Kingston National Baseball League opened the season on Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. when the members of the eight teams in the league met at the association for supper and to arrange final plans for carrying the big membership campaign to a successful close. The season will close November 2, and by that time it is expected that the membership of the association will number at least 1,500 members as a result of the campaign. The meeting that evening was marked with great enthusiasm an the first "games" in the league are now underway the following teams playing against each other:

Philadelphia vs. Pittsburgh.
Boston vs. Brooklyn.
Chicago vs. Cincinnati.
St. Louis vs. New York.

The rain today will not interfere with the games and they will not be called on account of darkness or other reasons and the final runs will be scored up until 10 o'clock Wednesday evening when the first game will be closed.

Every member of the teams who could possibly attend was present and the supper which had been prepared by Chef "Gus" Bonesteel was thoroughly enjoyed. At the close of the supper after the good things had been tucked beneath the vests of the players the rules of the game were explained by Secretary George D. Beckwith and each player was furnished by the manager of his team with a list of prospective members who he will endeavor to secure before the first game is finished.

The scores and standing of each team will be given in The Freeman the day after the game.

After supper had been disposed of and the plans and rules explained the teams made an automobile parade through the principal streets of the city.

While the campaign is in progress an effort will be made to see every man in the city and ask them to join the association. The Y. M. C. A. needs men and the men need the Y. M. C. A.

While the senior department is carrying on a big campaign it must not be forgotten that the boys department is also launching a campaign to secure members and the players of the American League will meet this evening for supper at the association when the final plans for the campaign will be announced.

The membership rates of the association follow:

For Men.

$9 senior full privilege membership entitles the member to all privileges of the social membership and those of the physical department, including gymnasium, bowling alleys, showers, swimming pool, hot room, steam room, a wire storage box for gymnasium clothes, and the use of a six foot steel locker.

$15 business men's membership entitles the member to all privileges of the senior full privilege membership, and the use of the special business men's club room and special business men's locker room.

$25 sustaining membership entitles the member to privileges of the business men's membership. For those who desire to pay the association in full for the actual cost of membership.

$5 social membership entitles a member to use of all social privileges, reading room, parlors, lunch room, game room, social clubs, educational clubs, dormitories and all other privileges excepting the physical department.

For Boys.

$2 limited membership (12 to 18 years of age) entitles to use of social rooms and general social privileges.

$5 intermediate gymnasium membership (15-18 years of age) entitles to all the physical department privileges including the gym, showers, and the swimming pool at special days and hours, a storage box for gym clothes and temporary use of locker and the boys summer camp.

$4 junior gymnasium membership (12 to 15 years old) entitles the member on special days and hours to the full privileges of the boys' department same as described in the intermediate membership.

The membership rates, as will be seen, are extremely low for the privileges that the holder of a membership receives for his money.

The present campaign for members should be a success and there is no question but that when it is brought to a close the membership of the association will be greatly increased. The Y. M. C. A. has been built especially for the men and boys of the city and it needs the support of every man and boy in Kingston.

Pianist With Unusual Career.

Leopold Godowsky, the great Russian-Polish pianist, who is to be the first artist for the Dodge Subscription Concerts, has had a most unusual career. He was born in Russian Poland and lived there in an old castle until ten years of age. In this castle-home he gave his first public concert at the age of nine years, showing then remarkable talent. Later studying in Berlin, he found the instruction so uninspiring, that after a few months he left for America, touring the United States with Clara Louisa Kellog and Emma Thursby. Later he appeared with Ovid Musin, the famous violinist. It was, however, the young pianist's great ambition to study with Liszt, and for that purpose he returned to Europe, reaching there just after the death of the master. Disappointed keenly, he later did succeed in studying with the noted French pianist and organist, Saint Saens, but the restless spirit of the Frenchman, took him often away from Paris, where Godowsky made his home, thus frequently interrupting his studies. So, he is in great measure, what might be called "self taught," and as such he is a marvelous success. He has more recently appeared with marked favor and appreciation in Germany, Austria-Hungary, Russia, England, Vienna and the large cities of the United States. Godowsky and family were near Ostend in Belgium when the war broke out, the pianist resting and composing at the time. The family fled to London, and come from there to New York city. He will appear at the high school auditorium next Wednesday evening, October 13.

Hunters are Numerous.

During the month of September seventy hunting licenses were issued by City Clerk Cummings at the city hall. Since the first of the year the city clerk has issued 250 licenses. As hunting licenses may be secured also from the county clerk's office and from the town authorities this gives a slight idea of the number of hunters who are seeking game in the woods of Ulster county.

Committees to Meet.

It would be highly appreciated if the various committees of the Y. M. C. A. fair would make their financial report to the treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Gates, before the regular monthly meeting of the auxiliary which will be held at the association building on Friday of this week, in order that a full report may then be made.

Electric Suction Sweeper
Gets All the Dirt

That in itself is a big enough reason why you should buy the Eclipse Suction Sweeper.

The Electric Suction Sweeper is in a class by itself for cleaning results, because it is the only cleaner that has gear driven brushes for sweeping in addition to electric vacuum cleaning.

It does everything that the ordinary cleaner does—applies powerful suction to the carpets and rugs—them in addition to this, it makes this suction effective by the gear driven brush, which sweeps up the clinging dirt, such as lint, hairs and threads, and shakes to the surface the heavy, gritty, imbedded dirt, for the suction to carry away.

ALMS BOARD WILL NOT MOVE TREES

To move or not to move the thirty-five hard maple trees growing in front of the City Home on Flatbush avenue was the weighty problem that came up for discussion and solution at the regular monthly meeting of the Commissioners of Charity held at the city hall on Monday evening, and it was finally decided not to move the trees.

A short time ago these young trees were set out along the front of the city property to become in time shade trees. The toll line of the New York Telephone Company, which runs out Flatbush avenue, is carried from pole to pole on the same side of the street as the newly planted trees and the telephone people noticed that the trees were planted directly under the toll line and that in years to come the trees would gradually grow up into the wires, making it necessary to trim the trees frequently.

From that arose the problem that came up for discussion and action at the board meeting. Messrs Vail and Snyder of the telephone company appeared before the board and Mr. Vail briefly stated the facts. He said that the trees were planted directly under the toll line and it was only a matter of time when the trees would be up among the wires. Every year the telephone company has to send out a gang of men to trim trees along the company's lines and it amounted to a large item of expense and to eliminate that item as much as possible the company was seeking to have future trouble avoided by suggesting that the trees be moved back from their present position. Mr. Vail suggested that in order not to interfere with the toll line the trees could be removed back inside the fence about six or eight feet.

The commissioners, however, stated that if the trees were moved from the sidewalk line back inside the fence it would spoil the property as the ground was used for agricultural purposes and with shade trees inside the fence it would mean that the only thing that could be planted near the trees would be grass, as there would be too much shade to raise crops or vegetables.

The commissioners also called the attention of the telephone representatives that as the trees were hard maple and as the toll line at that point was thirty feet above the ground the trees would not cause much trouble as they would be kept trimmed by the city and were planted for shade purposes only and would not grow to excessive height.

President Waterbury presided at the meeting with Commissioners Osterhoudt, Stock, Davis, Marquart and Lawatsch and Superintendent Edmonston present.

Commissioner Osterhoudt reported for the house committee to whom the matter had been referred that they had investigated the offer made by Thomas A. Stone to sell the board twelve acres of land in the rear of the City Home for $720 and that the house committee after looking over the property had offered Mr. Stone the sum of $500, which had been refused. The report of the committee was accepted.

Superintendent Edmonston [illegible] ted the following report for September:

Balance in city treasury, Sept. 7	$2,508.19
Deposited with city treasurer, Sept. 30	49.45
	$2,557 64
Amount of bills audited this date	1,425.48
Balance on hand	$1,132 16

There are 53 inmates in the City Home of which number 36 are male and 17 female.

PLUSHKIN'S COINS.

Wonderful Collection in Path of German Advance in Russia.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—"One of the finest coin collections in the world is housed in the home of a private collector in Pskof, a city between Dvinsk and Petrograd, upon the Warsaw-Petrograd Railroad, along which the Germans are endeavoring to advance, and the collection is one of the most valuable things to be found in the country around this city-gateway to the immemorial lands of the Slav," according to a bulletin issued today by the National Geographic Society. "M. Plushkin, the proprietor of Pskof's drygoods store, is the owner and gatherer of the collection which has made him known in many foreign lands and which is easily the most interesting thing in the hoary city, once a republic and the rival of Novgorod the Great.

"M. Plushkin lives above his store, surrounded by his wonderful collection of coin, and many other curios and antiquities which he has gathered during twenty years. The other treasures of this strange collector are of a chaotic variety, and fill several of the rooms of his home. The coin collection is the only part of his museum which contains a wide assortment of valuable articles that M. Plushkin has attempted to order and classify. Numismatologists everywhere know this collection, and consider it one of the best and most complete in the world, better than a similar collection to be found in the Hermitage.

"There are any number of Russian coins in the cabinet. Among these are examples of the earliest coins of Russia, the oldest of which do not date further back than 980. There are bars and half bars of silver, valued at two roubles and one rouble. There are ancient coins of Pskof, Novgorod the Great, Kief, Kazan, Tver and other towns, each with its distinctive stamp. One of the roubles is a coin eight inches square, a formidable piece of wealth. There is another rouble in the collection, made of bronze, which weighs seven pounds. In this old money, forty roubles, worth today about $20, would weigh their happy possessor down like a sack of potatoes. Papal, Mohammedan and Jewish coins, the latter bearing the stamp of Solomon's temple are represented, together with concave coins of old Byzantium, square Swedish coins of brass, remarkable coins used by the republic of Pskof, and some Chinese coins of the year 2,000 B. C. Rare specimens of the coinage of almost every nation of Europe are found in the collection. One of the oldest was started upon its career in the year 2,300 B. C., and has seen more than 4,000 years of existence, or has become quite old as most things go.

"The collection also contains numerous specimens of the paper money of various nations. The examples of Russian paper money are practically complete, some of the early specimens being unusually interesting. Among the early bills are a few as large as the ordinary diploma or legal document. Upon them are preserved the signatures of all the emperors and empresses who have ruled in Russia. Collectors, and curious visitors, from many lands have journeyed to the forsaken, decayed little town of Pskof and braved the inadequacies of its hotels in order to inspect M. Plushkin's renowned cabinet of coins."

Indian-Americans.

The Indians have the best title to the name real Americans, since they were here when the first immigrants from the old world arrived on these shores. The fact that they (the Indians) may have come here from some other continent does not affect the argument.

ALBANY SPECIALIST

Will be in Kingston

FRIDAY, OCT. 8th

AT 340 BROADWAY

DR. SWINBURNE OF ALBANY,

Makes Wonderful Cures Without Surgery

The Doctor Says:

The craze for cutting is still growing. A great many doctors advise operations when entirely unnecessary. Not that it is always done to make more money from the case, but because many physicians have not given sufficient time to study and research to enable them to make correct diagnosis of obscure diseases, or to understand how to treat such cases successfully with improved medical methods. Too many doctors merely accept the ideas and follow the practice of other physicians and advise operations because it is a popular medical craze. Some doctors will even perform operations, when they know that other treatment would produce a cure. Surgery may be necessary in some cases, but many serious cases, where physicians had declared an operation was the only means which would offer a hope of saving life, the use of the proper treatment did produce a cure, and the patient restored to health, without the danger of an operation. A recent case will prove of interest. A young lady, supposed to be suffering from appendicitis. Four doctors, two of whom were prominent surgeons, had advised this patient that an operation was absolutely necessary. A thorough examination found it was not a case of appendicitis at all, but one of obstruction of the bile ducts and impaction of the gall bladder. Treatment was given immediately which would remove the obstruction and reduce the inflammation. This was done and in a few days the patient was entirely relieved of all suffering, and has since made a complete recovery. There are many similar cases where operations were performed and the results often times proved fatal, where a correct diagnosis and the proper treatment would have saved human life and suffering. Cases of gall stones can often be cured without operation, as well as many other troubles, including special diseases of women. If patients are advised to submit to the dangers of surgery, they should not consent until they obtain the opinion of a specialist who believes more in the efficiency of improved treatment rather than the wild craze for operations.

Diseases being successfully treated include Catarrhal Troubles, Stomach or Intestinal Disorders, Gall Stones, Liver or Kidney Diseases, Dropsy or Heart Affections, Shortness of Breath or Asthma, Chronic Coughs or Lung Diseases, Rheumatism or Neuritis, Paralysis, Fits, Neurasthenia or other Nerve Troubles, Eczema and blood diseases, Special Weakness, Debility, Malnutrition and Private Diseases of Men and Women.

BUSY WEEK FOR GREEN-EYEDMONSTER

This week has furnished an epidemic of domestic troubles among colored people in Kingston and this morning three such cases were brought to the attention of Recorder Lang and disposed of.

Monday morning, Mrs. Isaac Davis of Steep Rocks appeared before the recorder and lodged a complaint against her husband who she said had "kicked her in the stomach." He also beat her up, she said, with the stove lifter. This morning Isaac appeared to answer to the charge, having been arrested by Sergeant Hanley, and pleaded not guilty.

"That so," inquired Mrs. Davis as she dug down into a pocket in her jacket and produced a razor which she showed to the recorder.

"This razor is no good" said the recorder after he had examined it.

"Well it is good to cut me with" explained Mrs. Davis.

The razor looked as though it was ready to fall apart and the blade had several bad nicks in it and could never again be used for its original purpose, that of shaving.

Mrs. Davis said that the other night when she was taking her husband's clothes out to the kitchen she felt something in the pocket and on examination found the razor.

Isaac explained that the razor did not belong to him, that it was in the house when they moved there. Said he "I got a whole lot to do to kill this woman aint I." Isaac said that he was willing to put his wife on the train and pay her fare home or if she wanted to he would take her back to live with him and "treat her right." As far as beating her up he had never done such a thing. The whole trouble, according to Isaac, was that "This woman is jealous of me."

"Blessed if I am" retorted Mrs. Davis.

From that point both wanted to tell their stories at the same time until the recorder rapped for silence.

After some further questioning Recorder Lang discharged Isaac and told him that he and his wife had better go home and try to live peaceably together in the future and that if the matter was brought to his attention again a jail sentence would follow.

Romance Not Yet Dead.

Monday evening there was party of "blacks and whites" in the promised land and this morning a colored lady appeared before the recorder and wanted a warrant for the arrest of one of the guests. According to her story she attended the party with her "gentleman friend" and while there she saw him leave the house with a "white lady" and another colored man and go toward the woods. She followed, of course, and then her "gentleman friend" turned on her and told her to go back but she did not and he knocked her down while the other "colored gentleman" kicked her in the stomach.

She did not want her "gentleman friend" arrested because "he has been good to me," but she did want the other "colored gentleman" arrested.

Recorder Lang informed her that as both men seemed to be mixed up in the assault on her he would have to arrest both.

Rather than have her "gentleman friend" arrested and if found guilty sent to jail she finally decided that she would do without the warrant and left.

Only a Family Jar.

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Faulkner, both colored, who reside on North street, had a family jar during which Mrs. Faulkner was removed to the Kingston City Hospital in the ambulance and her husband was locked up in jail. The case was adjourned to this morning and James furnished $1,000 bail. This morning Mrs. Faulkner appeared and said she was not willing to press the charge and asked the recorder to discharge her husband.

She explained that her "man is awful jealous of me." According to her story her husband thought that she became too friendly with "a former gentleman friend who used to wait on me before I was married." She said that her husband's jealousy was unfounded.

Her request was granted and her husband discharged and the bail bond canceled.

60 Days For Michael.

Michael Green, who is no stranger in recorder's court, was arrested by Policeman Shader on Monday evening for disorderly conduct and drunkeness on Broadway, near O'Neil street. This morning Michael was partly sober and very penitent, and pleaded for another chance. Less than 30 days ago Michael was arrested on the same charge and was given a suspended sentence of 30 days on his promise not to fall off the water wagon.

Michael when reminded of that fact said it was true, but "I will pledge myself I won't be here again for awhile."

"I know you won't. 60 days," retorted Recorder Lang.

Michael looked as though he had been through the war and had a bad cut over one ear from which clung hair streaked with dried blood.

McBrien Inquest Held.

An inquest was held this morning at the office of Coroner E. A. Kelly on West Union street to ascertain the cause of the death of Roger McBrien of O'Neil street who was killed at the Gage street crossing of the West Shore railroad a few days ago. Three witnesses were examined by the coroner. They were Engineer Sterling in charge of the engine that hit McBrien, Flagman Dietz in charge of the crossing, and Dr. Frank Eastman who was called to administer surgical aid to McBrien. Acording to the testimony of the engineer and flagman the crossing gates were down when McBrien started to cross the tracks. Coroner Kelly reserved decision.

LIGHT FOR BRIDGE A PUZZLING PROBLEM

The matter of lighting the Sleightsburgh bridge presents an interesting question which will be taken up by Mayor Canfield with the State Highway Department this week. If the bridge is to be lighted, it will be necessary to include in the plans proper provision for conduits, lighting standards, etc., and the plans are so well advanced that it is most desirable to have the matter settled before the State Highway Department advertises for bids.

A proposition made some time ago by Mayor Canfield to the Kingston Gas and Electric Copany was rejected by that company. The plan included the use of the bridge for the cables of the electric company, which now pass under the Rondout creek. In consideration of this usage, Mayor Canfield suggested that the electric company furnish light for the bridge free of charge. The Kingston Gas and Electric Company does not furnish free lights, at least for the public.

The state cannot light the bridge because here is no authority in law for the expenditure of the state moneys for such purposes, and in view of the attitude taken by the electric company, it becomes necessary for the cost of the lighting, provided the bridge is lighted, to be paid by the town of Esopus and the city of Kingston.

If the last mentioned plan is carried out, it will be an easy matter to be arranged by the city of Kingston, but certain preliminary steps will have to be taken by the proper authorities in the town of Esopus. One of the questions for determination is whether the cost of light would be a town charge or a charge against a particular lighting district. The town of Esopus contains the Port Ewen lighting district, but its boundaries are defined by an act of the board of supervisors, and the present boundaries do not extend to the bridge or even to the approach to the bridge. Neither the lighting district nor the town would be authorized to extend its lighting system further than the middle of the channel of the Rondout creek, which forms the boundary between the town of Esopus and the city of Kingston, and on the other hand the city of Kingston would only be authorized to extend its lights to the same boundary.

The adoption of the plan outlined would require that the city of Kingston furnish more lights than the Esopus district, because the distance from the middle of the channel to the Rondout end of the bridge is about twice the distance from the middle of the channel to the Esopus end of the bridge. This is due to the fact that the land rises abruptly from the creek on the Esopus side, while on the Rondout side there are several tracks and a roadway before the land rises to the level of Abeel street, where the bridge terminates in the city.

The necessity of having the bridge plans include plans for conduits, etc., for lighting has been shown by the experience the city had with the Washington avenue viaduct. When plans for the viaduct were prepared by the state, no provision for lighting had been requested by the city with the result that there were no conduits and an extra expense was added on the city when lights were installed there.

Plans for the bridge are understood to be progressing rapidly, the State Highway Department having secured the assistance of a bridge designer to work out the detailed plans, instead of depending on its own engineers whose duties are confined to road construction and bridges of smaller dimensions than that which will be built over the Rondout creek. The repeated promises of the State Highway Department officials regarding the bridge and the disposal of all preliminary matters by the Ulster county officials gives rise to the belief that the bridge will be advertised for proposals for construction within a comparatively short time.

FINE SPEAKERS FOR S. S. CONVENTION

The Ulster County Sunday School Association has been particularly fortunate in the speakers and workers secured for the annual convention to be held on October 19, 20 and 21 at the Y. M. C. A in Kingston

The county now has a large number of interested, efficient and successful workers. Many of these will appear on the program. Among them are the Rev. C. G. Ellis, Ph.D., of Rondout, the Rev. D. G. Verwey, of Wallkill, L. P Clark of Tillson, and the Rev. W. W. Voight of Accord.

Several speakers of state and international reputation have been secured for this convention also. Among them are the following:

Mrs. J. Woodbridge Barnes of New York city comes for one address. She is a member of the Graded Lesson editorial staff of the Methodist Episcopal Church and an expert on the matter of graded lessons; also a member of the International Lesson Committee.

Dr. Milton S. Littlefield, a district secretary of the Congregational Publishing Society, is another graded lesson expert. He will deliver three addresses and conduct conferences in connection with some of them.

Rev. Charles Howland Cookman, coming from Yonkers where he is pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, is well known in Kingston and will receive a hearty welcome. His specialty will be Sunday School Pedagogy, on which he will deliver three addresses.

Rev. Theodore F. Bayles, the educational secretary of the Reformed Church in America, comes to this county for the first time in his official capacity. He is a telling speaker and a forceful thinker.

The convention closes with an address by "Timothy Stand-by," the Rev. Joseph Clark, D. D., the state Sunday school superintendent. He needs no introduction to Ulster county for he is known and loved the county over.

WEIGH FOREIGN LETTERS.

Penalty For Short-Paid Letters For Foreign Countries.

Notwithstanding special attention has been called repeatedly through the official publications of the department and also through the press to the rates of postage applicable to articles mailed in the United States addressed for delivery abroad, the department continues to receive complaints on account of the receipt in foreign countries of much short-paid mail from the United States. Postmasters are directed again, therefore, to give the widest possible publicity to the rates of postage applicable to articles for foreign countries and to the regulation which requires the collection of double the amount of deficient postage upon the delivery of short-paid articles in international mails. Whenever it is practicable to do so, postmasters shall also promptly inform the senders of short-paid articles mailed at their offices of the amount necessary fully to prepay the postage on such articles and to hold the articles until the senders supply the necessary postage stamps or specifically authorize the dispatch of the articles as short-paid.

As the failure properly to prepay letters for foreign countries appears to be the result in many cases of an erroneous impression as to the application of the United States domestic rate, postmasters should adopt all measures practicable to give notice to the public that the only destinations to which the two-cent letter rate applies are Canada, Cuba, Mexico, Republic of Panama, the Canal Zone, Bahamas, Barbados, British Honduras, Leeward Islands, Newfoundland, Germany (by direct steamers only), England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland and the City of Shanghai, China, and that to all other places the rate is five cents for the first ounce or fraction of an ounce and three cents for each additional ounce or fraction of an ounce, which must be fully prepaid or the letters become liable on delivery to a charge of double the amount of the deficient postage.

Singular Accident at Station.

Mrs. George Hote of Red Bank, N. J., had her leg broken this morning in a rather peculiar accident. She and her husband, who is an invalid, had just alighted from an Ulster & Delaware train at the Union station and were walking across the platform to the station, she assisting him, when he slipped and fell against her, his body hitting her in the leg and breaking it. Dr. A. A. Stern was summoned and set the leg and gave her medical attention. Later the Hotes boarded the West Shore train and continued their homeward journey. The accident occurred shortly after 11 o'clock.

Schenectady Strike Quiet.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Schenectady, Oct. 5.—Peaceful conditions continue to prevail here in connection with the strike at the General Electric plant. No cars ran today to the works because there were no passengers. All of the meetings held by the strikers are to be open to the public and press. This is an innovation during a strike as usually the conferences are secret and great care is taken to exclude all except those who are identified with the strike.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Oct. 5.—The market was unsettled in the early dealings today. American Car and Foundry was the weakest feature, opening sales being 4,000 shares at 85 to 84, a decline of 6¼. This stock was affected by the president's statement, showing that its war orders were not as large as had been expected. It also was an incentive for speculative liquidation in a number of other war order issues. A few minutes later American Car and Foundry rallied to 86½. Lackawanna Steel fell 4 points to 83, followed by a rally to 85. Crucible which closed yesterday at 103½, opened at 100 and rallied to 103. Westinghouse was in good demand from the start, yielding only ⅞ to 134⅝, from which it advanced to 137. Willis-Overland gained 7 points to 240. Electric Storage Battery rose 1½ to 76½. The railway issues displayed pronounced strength. New York Central opened 1⅛ higher at 98, and Canadian Pacific advanced 1⅝ to 160⅝. Fractional gains were made in Pennsylvania, Reading, Southern Pacific and St. Paul. Steel Common opened ⅛ lower at 79¾, and then advanced to 80⅛. At the end of the first fifteen minutes the majority of the stocks were in good demand at advancing prices. Inspiration Copper reflected renewed accumulation, advancing from 42⅞ to 44¼.

Price movements were narrow in the late forenoon, with some amount of gain being made in near- [illegible]. A number of the specialties were prominent, some of these making violent advances to new high records. The standard issues were stronger and more active than they had been for some time. Maxwell Motors gained 2 points to 57¼, and a point gain was made in General Electric. Baldwin advanced 1¾ to 122¾ and American Foundry moved up a point to 87½. American Can held its early gain, selling at 65¼. Studebaker jumped to 143⅞, a gain of 3⅞ for the morning. Reading sold at a gain of about a point to 153¾, and Union Pacific sold at the same amount of gain to 132⅜. Distillers rose 2 points to 36⅜. Money, 1¾ per cent.

The execution to stop orders and selling by room traders caused vigorous declines in some issues in the late afternoon. Baldwin dropped 5¼ to 117½; Crucible four points to 99, Studebaker 2⅞ to 141; American Locomotive 2¾ to 68 and American Car and Foundry 4 to 86½. Allis Chalmers declined to 44¾, General Electric to 179 and Goodrich Rubber sold down to 76½. Bethlehem Steel, however, showed a gain of 3⅞ points for the day, selling at 298⅞. Later in the afternoon there was renewed buying which brought about substantial recoveries throughout the list, Bethlehem selling at a new high record price of 300½.

The market closed feverish; governments unchanged, other bonds irregular.

MARQUARDT APPEAL ARGUED TODAY

The appeal of Louis Marquardt from his judgment of conviction for murder in the first degree was argued before the court of appeals this afternoon by Newton H. Fessenden for Marquardt and by District Attorney Cunningham for The People.

Marquardt was convicted at the January term of the county court in this year of murder in the first degree, in having killed Mrs. Amelia Paulus in this city on August 5, 1914. The crime was witnessed by Mrs. Paulus's two children, and there was a large amount of testimony to show that Mrs. Paulus had aroused the anger of Marquardt before the commission of the crime. Marquardt's defense was that he was insane at the time of the killing and that no motive was shown for the commission of murder. He was defended by Newton H. Fessenden, with Joseph M. Fowler of counsel. The appeal is based on exceptions to rulings of the court on questions to which Marquardt's counsel objected.

Judge Jenkins sentenced Marquardt to receive the death penalty at Sing Sing prison during the week of March 14. An appeal from the judgment of conviction acted as a stay of execution.

If This Is Your Birthday
OCTOBER 5.

The person if this birthdate must cultivate a cheerful, happy outlook on life, for the tendency is to worry, to be impatient and this will tend to a nervous breakdown and may be overcome. Women of this birthdate are more apt to look on the darker side of life than men, although both sexes are subject to this weakness.

Both men and women of this birthdate, are keenly sensitive to impressions and should always follow their first impressions. They are inclined, however, to form a judgment too quickly and having once formed it they stick stubbornly to it no matter if it has no foundation in fact.

ADVERTISEMENT WRITING.

HALF the tremendous sums annually invested in advertising are wasted because efforts are made along wrong lines. Most business men put off until the last moment the preparation of their adrs. and then call them "good enough." Why not have advertisements possessing dignity and strength—something sane and substantial to which to tie—publicity with good logic and good sense that minimizes the possibility of failure? If you're interested, write me for terms. George M. Zellner, care of Kingston Freeman.

PURCELL AT UP-TO-DATE.

New Manager Takes Charge of Widely Known Store.

John A. Purcell, who has been employed in the Van Wagenen Company's store since the first day that concern began business on Wall street, severed his connection with Van Wagenen's Saturday and Monday assumed management of the Up-to-Date Cloak Manufacturing Company's Kingston store. For twenty-five years Mr Purcell was employed in the one Wall street building beginning as a mere youngster with Hubbard & Foshay, then with Mortimer C. Drake and finally with the Van Wagenen Company. Each milestone in those twenty-five years has been marked by commendable zeal and painstaking effort on Mr. Purcell's part, teaching him all that is worth knowing about salesmanship and floor management and making of him a thoroughly competent and experienced business man. He will not only be missed by the Van Wagenen Company and its employes, but by hosts of shoppers who for years sought Mr Purcell's judgment and advice when making purchases. When the Van Wagenen store closed Saturday night the management and employes surrounded Mr. Purcell, wished him the success he so richly merits in his new field of endeavor, and presented him with a handsome club bag. Mr. Forman of the Up-to-Date Company is to be congratulated upon his good fortune in securing as manager so able, courteous and trustworthy a man as John A. Purcell.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke).

New York, Oct. 5—The last available figures show that on offensive play the Red Sox have the "edge" in each department—runs, hits and stolen bases—but the "edge" is small

Below there are three tables The smallest is a summary of the other two In the other two appear the names of the players who are likely to face each other in the opening clash.

The reason [illegible] was used in getting at the comparisons is because figures involving all the players on both sides, many of whom won't figure in the series at all, would not constitute a fair comparison

Here is the summary of what each team has shown offensively throughout the season

	R per Game	H per Game	S B per Game
Red Sox	4.7	8.4	.93
Phillies	3.9	8.1	.59

You'll notice probably that Bill Carrigan's crowd of speed boys has got an noticeable bulge on the Phillies That's really a surprise that statistics contained because it was common belief that the Red Sox as runners far outclassed the Phillies Yet the total bases stolen by the nine Red Sox that show in the next table is 101 against 101 by the Phillies.

Here are the two tables that compare the scoring, hitting and base running power of the rival aggregations

Red Sox.

Player	G	R	H	S B
Speaker, cf	148	109	175	29
Hooper rf	144	90	131	21
Lewis, lf	149	68	150	14
Hoblitzel 1b	118	53	107	9
Barry, 2b	127	45	104	7
Scott, ss	96	70	70	10
Gardner 3b	124	55	113	12
Cady, c	76	26	58	0
Wood, p	30	6	14	1
Totals		522	931	101

Phillies.

Player	G	R	H	S B
Whitted, lf	128	45	127	25
Cravath, rf	148	85	145	11
Paskert, cf	104	47	76	6
Luderus 1b	138	59	155	9
Niehoff, 2b	141	62	125	19
Bancroft, ss	148	78	136	12
Stock, 3b	64	35	58	7
Killifer, c	108	28	81	5
Alexander, p	49	10	21	6
Totals		419	921	101

Speaker is the brightest star of the Red Sox outfit—as a matter of course He leads in runs scored, hits and in stolen bases Whitted, of the Phillies however is close up to Speaker Whitted who has played 20 games less than Speaker, has stolen 25 bases against 29 for Speaker That would make them about equal in base stealing skill

The so-called "Hippopotamus"—Cravath—has scored 85 runs in 148 games—a showing far superior to that of Lewis and almost equal to that of Hooper And Cravath has stolen 11 bases against only 14 for Lewis

In hitting power the clubs are neck and neck The Red Sox average 8.4 hits per game and the Phillies 8.1 The count is in the Red Sox's favor in this connection solely because the pitchers are included in the figures

Alexander, of the Phillies, is hitting about 100 points under Joe Wood.

In runs scored, however, the Sox showed superior They have averaged almost one more run per game than the Phillies—which is a remarkable showing

If the rival clubs maintained in the world series battling, their run scoring average during the regular season, it would spell doom for the Phillies But, fortunately for the Phillies, that never has been the case.

RALLY DAY SERVICES.

Notable Day at the Reformed Church of the Comforter.

Rally Day was observed on Sunday at all the services of the Reformed Church of the Comforter At the morning service the pastor, Rev W F Stowe, preached to an audience which filled the church on "Some Characteristics of a Good Church Member." One person joined the church on confession of faith

Following this service the Sunday school met in the church and listened to inspiring addresses by Vernon Hull and two of the former superintendents George A Shufeldt and C A Raschke Dr C H. Bishop sang a beautiful solo "I Think When I Read that Sweet Story of Old" which was greatly appreciated by all. One hundred and seventy-six members of the school were present and the offering amounted to between thirteen and fourteen dollars

At the Christian Endeavor meeting fifty of the young people were present to enjoy the service The special musical features were a ladies quartet and men's chorus

The evening preaching service was a fitting close to Rally Day A congregation which crowded the auditorium listened to a sermon by the pastor on "The Friendship of David and Jonathan" A chorus choir of seventeen voices added greatly to the service and rendered most beautifully the anthem, "In Heavenly Love Abiding" A men's chorus of twelve voices sang a selection which greatly pleased the listeners "The Way of the Cross" by Solman is a charming solo and was rendered most effectively by Miss Maud Weaver, who has a fine, clear soprano voice The day was one long to be remembered by all Aid For Jews in Russia.

In Kingston, as well as in every city of the United States, committees are working indefatigably to raise funds for the relief of the Jews in Russia. The local committee reports generous response from people of all creeds and nationalities. This alarming news which came over the cable from Berlin via Sayville [illegible] has spurred the committeemen on to even greater effort than has been made [illegible] "Russian outrages against the Jewish population are continuing despite the rumors circulated that the condition of the Jews has improved The truth is that the distress of Russian Polish Jews is appalling. Hundreds of thousands are literally starving Immediate relief on the largest scale is imperative Russia is trying to solve the Jewish question by annihilating the Jews."

Now Intrigue Means to Embarrass.

Words jump between antiquity and fashion It was but a few years ago that "obsess" came into constant use by the literary And now "intrigue" is a corpse dug up from the past and in constant use "It intrigues me" is the phrase. And in dictionaries the sense of "intriguing" to "embarrass" is marked obsolete. It's most emphatically alive.

EVEN MONEY ON WORLD SERIES

(By Frank G. Menke.)

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Oct. 5.—The Phillies and Red Sox probably will go into battle on Friday in the world series duel with the betting at even money on the outcome of the series and 7 to 5 or 8 to 5 that the Phillies will win the first game, if Alexander pitches

The gambling element which babbled so freely a month ago about wagering three to one against the Phillies if they won the pennant seem to have have taken to the storm cellars. Fear of Alexander's mighty right arm, and the slugging power of Cravath seem to have generated the observance of the "safety first" rule

The worst odds against the Phillies so far recorded have been 13 to 10, but the betting throughout the Wall street district today was 6 to 5 on the Red Sox, with tons of Philly money coming into sight, and an increasing reluctance on the part of Red Sox supporters to offer anything better than even money.

The Philly supporters at first figured they ought to get fairly sizable odds because of the general impression that the Red Sox out-classed the Philadelphia outfit, but the scarcity of Boston money just now is causing the rooters of the National Leaguers to grab any offer down to even money on the series.

Even money was offered today that the Phillies would win the first game if Alexander pitched, but there were no takers, and then the price was boosted to 6 to 5. A few bets at this figure were recorded but then the Red Sox followers later insisted on odds of 7 to 5 This was refused but it seems very likely that the odds on the Phillies to win the first game will go to 7 to 5 and probably 8 to 5 before Thursday night.

As is always the rule in pre-series betting, some freak wagers were made today and yesterday. One bet of $100 even was made that Cravath would outhit Speaker. Another of $100 even was made that Cravath will hit for more extra bases than Speaker

A Philadelphia fan, who came to town on a business trip, got into an argument with a Red Sox supporter about the slugging qualities of the rival outfits and as a result bet $100 to $500 that Cravath will make at least one home run during the series, and then wagered $500 even that the Phillies will hit for a greater number of total bases during the series than the Red Sox

A number of bets at even money were made on the fielding showing of the clubs for the entire series, and a bet of $200 to $250 was made that the Phillies will make more runs during the series than the Red Sox. One hardy fan offered $150 to $300 that Alexander will win every game he pitches, but found no takers.

GEORGE CHALMERS

PHILLIE PITCHER WHO MAY SEE ACTION IN WORLD'S SERIES.

George Chalmers Phillie pitcher, who may get into action in the world's series games Alexander will probably pitch the first game for the Phillies and Chalmers may take his turn at the slab for the second game.

LIFE AT OSTEND.

Once Gay Pleasure Resort Undergoes a Tragic Transformation.

Belgo-Dutch Frontier, Oct. 5.—"The season will open shortly under wholly German management." It was a German marine who scrawled this on the front of the Hotel Majestic at Ostend last April. To him it was, of course, a "joke." To the Ostenders its realization is one of the chapters in the bitter tragedy of Belgium

Everybody knows the Ostend of "the season" in happier years The recollection conjures up the vision of a city of pleasure, where the life of the seaside was lived at its gayest and giddiest for Ostend was the acknowledged Queen of Belgian water places, the rendezvous of as cosmopolitan a crowd of merry-makers as perhaps any sunlit shore could show. A mile of great hotels, thronged with French and Belgians, English and Germans, flaunted the majesty of the North Sea, scores of tiny cafes sprayed their awnings to the breeze, on the golden sands hundreds of [illegible]-hued bathing-cabins made a broken rainbow.

Then, trains de luxe linked Ostend with every part of Europe, and the cross-Channel boats brought hundreds of Englishfolk to share the free delights of continental life. Today? Well, Ostend is as remote from the rest of Europe as Central Africa. It is ringed off from the outer world by a barrier of death.

But Ostend still has its "season." All summer it was a health resort for the German army. Its fine hotels are filled with German officers. Some have been wounded and, after treatment in one of the field hospitals in Belgium, came to Ostend to convalesce. Others are there whose purpose seems to be the enjoyment of a "rest cure."

It is a tragic transformation that Ostend has undergone since the German occupation. It has been put into a "state of defence." It has suffered a war change from a city of pleasure, gay and frivolous, to a fortified port, grim and somber. Behind the barricaded windows of the hotels are scores of machine guns In the road behind the Digue pits have been dug,—the flint cobbles piled up in front, and guns posted in position.

Where there are not guns, loopholed trenches face the sea, and in streets and squares behind the parade artillery is parked Here and there are gaps in the mile-long frontage of buildings, as also in the railings bordering the Digue—destruction wrecked to clear the range for the big guns further inland.

For be it understood that the Germans are lacking that poise of mind essential to real enjoyment of their "season" at Ostend. They have their little worries. Not forgotten is that unpleasant incident when a French destroyer crept slyly through the mist to close inshore, and, with a well-directed shell, disturbed a jovial little luncheon party of staff officers at the Hotel Majestic. There were two of those convivials for whom that unfinished lunch was the last to which they ever sat down.

No, the blackbooted, unbidden guests at the Majestic and the Littoral, the Phare and the Splendide, are much too distracted by the kindly attentions of Allies' airmen and naval gunners to derive proper benefit from their "rest cure" by quietly contemplating the sea sparkling at their feet.

To Belgians access to the Digue is forbidden except for one stretch, within certain hours, between the Avenue de la Reine and the Palace Hotel. Elsewhere it is sacred to German officers Some of them approach the parade by way of underground passages tunnelled from their hotels to the sea-front There are scores of these hidden ways in Ostend Officers for instance can pass from hotel to hotel without risking the open—through holes cut in the dividing walls.

But whilst the town is surrounded inland with trenches and barbed wire, it is from seaward that its temporary masters most fear attack. I have already mentioned the loop-holed, gun-guarded Digue. Ever more striking is the aspect of the beach. This, for nearly its whole length is a network of entanglements. It is studded with stout posts with barbed wire from one to the other There are miles of this "invention of the devil."

There is one narrow strip of beach that has been left free. Here if you please, are a lonely dozen bathing cabins—all that remain of the hundreds that in a normal Ostend "season" make a little wooden city on the sands And these are reserved for German officers who wish to bathe

The Kursaal, standing at the curve of the Digue, where all the life of Ostend, so vivid and joyous, used to seem to be centered and concentrated, now is like the grotesque tomb of all that murdered, pleasure-filled life.

The great, gaudy building is sandbagged and boarded. Vanished are the "little horses" that used to race so furiously for the hazard of a ten-franc piece; silent are the green-baized tables where the gold was wont to chink.
